

The Cost of 340B to Oregon

In 2025, workers and employers lost $266 million in negotiated rebates to 340B

Despite advocates' claims that the 340B program is free, it raises costs for patients, employers, state and local governments, Medicare, and managed Medicaid. One way it increases costs is by displacing the negotiated rebates that are used to lower net drug prices. Research by IQVIA shows that workers and employers lost $14.5 billion in rebates nationally in 2025 due to 340B.¹ The cost to Oregon workers and employers in 2025 was $266 million.

$122	Private sector employees ²	$230M
	Government employees ³	$36M
	Total	$266M

340B also displaces rebates in managed Medicaid, which cost the state of Oregon $13M in 2025.

The cost of 340B to Oregon has increased substantially in recent years due to program growth. From 2023 to 2025, the number of healthcare providers prescribing 340B drugs, the number of 340B facilities, and the value of 340B drug purchases all increased.

#	GROWTH	#	GROWTH	#	GROWTH
19,363	+2%	515	+18%	$2.5 billion	+47%

340B utilization varies markedly across Oregon and neighboring states, underscoring that the program's financial burden is not borne uniformly.
